Gui Ignon:

Gui Ignon (1897-1963) was a painter who drew upon a vast array of influences – formal training in Paris during the heady days following WWI, time spent as a POW in a German prison camp, hitchhiking across the U.S. during the Great Depression and drawing the people and places he encountered, and friendships with leading philosophers - to create an enduring and vibrant body of work. His oil paintings and charcoal sketches are marked by his natural gift for color, carefully honed technique, and unblinking exploration of intellectually and spiritually challenging themes.
